It is lovely to be back at school - I've really missed the kids and staff - it's a great team/whanau and I'm soooooo impressed with the way everyone has worked together in my absence.

Welcome Summer - what a lovely surprise to have Summer return to us last week. It is FANTASTIC to have our 3 Y8s back together especially as all 3 are such excellent role models and student leaders.

New computers

The Board of Trustees have recently approved the purchase of 6 laptops for our Y7/8 students. We need to know by the end of next week if you wish to purchase one for your family.

Lions Windfall

The Rongotea and Districts Lions Club sold baleage as a fundraiser for local schools. We are thrilled to receive $3100 and the BOT, staff and kids will decide how best to spend this amazing windfall.

Parent/teacher/child Interviews

These are scheduled for next week. Please ring to book a time (or return the slip attached to Week 2s newsletter). We look forward to a 100% attendance!

Portfolios will be shared, goals set, and mid-year reports will come home on Friday 8th July - end of em 2.

Te Kawau Talent Quest

Auditions at Rongotea on 10th June - registration forms from our school Office. Live Show on the 17th June.

Birthdays

30th May Ebony turned 10 and on the 1st June

Zunairah turns 12.

Happy birthday girls - we hope you both enjoy/ed your special days.
